

sinclair broadcasting uses public airways and should be prevented from any electioneering or use of their privilege to advance the personal political agenda of the company's owners. they should not instruct their affiliates to preempt programming in order to bash kerry or any other candidate.